Fairplain, W.Va.

Kenneth H. Armentrout, 80, of Fairplain passed away October 18, 2009, at Jackson General Hospital, Ripley, following complications from pneumonia and a long battle with cancer.

He was born April 4, 1929, in Mount Nebo, a son to the late William McKinley "Mack" and Nina H. (Hughes) Armentrout.

He was a United States Navy veteran of the Korean War, a retired electrician from Kaiser Aluminum with over 30 years of service, and a lifelong farmer. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Erma Lee (Thomas) Armentrout; son and his wife Ruel and Debbie Armentrout of Scott Depot; daughters Jeanie Armentrout of Ravenswood, Terri Lyons and her husband Foster, and Sherrie Lineberry, all of Ripley, and Cathy Norman of Vinton, OH; brother Dale Armentrout of Soggy Run, OH; sisters Dorothy Curry of Tioga and Marjory Jones of New Mexico; eight grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

Service was held at noon on Wednesday, October 21, at Casto Funeral Home, Evans, with Pastor Mat Baldwin officiating. Burial followed in Fairplain Cemetery with military honors by American Legion Post #107, Ripley. Visitation was one hour prior to time of service.
