

Obituaries

Page A-4

Thursday, May 31, 2007

Tommy E. Hager 70, Fairplain

FAIRPLAIN - Tommy Edward Hager, 70, of Fairplain, passed away at his home surrounded by family Tuesday, May 29, 2007, following a short illness.

He was born April 24, 1937, at South Charleston, a son of the late Stewart and Gracie Hartwell Hager. He retired from Mountain Auto Parts and was the founder of Hager's Auto Parts and Towing in Kenna. Tommy was a very generous man who loved his family and an honest day's work. In return, he was loved by many.

He is survived by his wife of 49 years Mary Frances Stewart Hager; sons Dana Hager and wife Loretta of Fairplain and Stuart Hager and wife Jenny of Evans; daughters Teonia Atkinson and husband Mike of Newark, WV and Jill Gill and husband Kent of Enola, PA; sisters Joanne Peaker of Liberty and Gale Summers of South Charleston and eight grandchildren Tommy, Jacob, Michael, Matthew, Marissa, Chelsey, Mahalia and Benjamin.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, James Mallory.

A graveside service will be held today, May 31, 2007, at 11 a.m. at Fairplain Cemetery. Parsons-Waybright Funeral Home, Ripley, served the family.