Ocala, FL —

Donna Josephine Pochard, 82, of Ocala, FL, passed away January 23, 2009, at Legacy Hospice House, Ocala, following an extended illness.

She was born October 8, 1926, in Dorothy, WV, a daughter of the late Joseph and Dona Jane Justice Pochard.

Donna was a long-time resident of Columbus, OH, prior to moving to Florida 20 years ago. She enjoyed being around people and experienced many occupations that allowed her to fulfill that desire. She was always involved with owning and operating restaurants (usually pizza), selling or buying at flea markets and being a caregiver.

She is survived by her son, Paul Crissenger, and daughter-in-law Sandy of Grove City, OH; two grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. She will be missed.
