

The Jackson Star - News

Robert Monroe Stogdon 80, Jacksonville, FL

The Jackson Star-News
Thu Jun 17, 2010, 09:00 AM EDT

Jackson County, W.Va. -

JACKSONVILLE, FL – Robert Monroe Stogdon, 80, formerly of South Charleston passed away Saturday, June 12, 2010 at St. Vincent Medical Center in Jacksonville, FL. He was born December 24, 1929, a son to the late William E. and Inez L. Stogdon.

He graduated from Sissonville High School and went on to service in the US Air Force. After his service, he worked for Bell Lines and then Union Carbide, from which he retired.

Surviving him is his wife Lorain Raines Stogdon, son Mark Stogdon (Judy) and two grandchildren, Nicole and Brad.

Service was Wednesday, June 16, 2010, 2:00 pm, at Waybright Funeral Home, Ripley. Burial followed in the Fairplain Cemetery. Friends could call one hour prior to the service. Waybright Funeral Home of Ripley served the family.