

Lillian V. Taylor 90, Columbus, OH

COLUMBUS, OH— Lillian Vesta Bradley Taylor, 90, of Columbus, OH, formerly of Charleston, passed away Friday, October 12, 2007, at Arlington Court Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Upper Arlington, OH.

She was born April 9, 1917, near Ripley, a daughter of the late Melford Lloyd Bradley and Mary Jane Williams Bradley.

She graduated from Malden High School, Malden, WV and worked in Washington D.C. and in Charleston as a secretary/book-keeper. After her marriage in 1948 she was a devoted homemaker and mother in Charleston. She was a wonderful mother and a good friend to those who knew her, and she excelled as a seamstress and cook. She was a longtime active member of Weekley United Methodist Church and West Side United Methodist Church, Charleston and Linworth United Methodist Church, Columbus, OH.

Survivors include her son Lloyd Harrison Taylor and wife Virginia of Keymar, MD; daughter Nancy Jane Taylor of Columbus, OH and grandchildren John Daniel Taylor and wife Shannon of Ft. Irwin, CA and Michael Bradley Taylor of Keymar, MD.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Kenneth Nottingham Taylor in 1998 and brothers Rufus Leonard, Charles Williams and Harold Lloyd Bradley, who passed away as a child.

Services were held Sunday, October 14, 2007, at Vail Funeral Home, Ripley. A graveside service was held Monday, October 15, 2007, at Fairplain Cemetery, Ripley.

In lieu of flowers, friends may contribute to Linworth United Methodist Church, 7070 Bent Tree Blvd., Columbus, OH 43235, West Side United Methodist Church, 401 Roane Street, Charleston, WV 25302 or to the charitable organization of their choice.