

October 23, 2009

Eugene Kiser

Eugene Kiser, 83, of Nitro, passed away Tuesday, Oct. 20, 2009, at Valley Center. He was a former employee of Libby-Owens-Ford Glass Co. and was owner of Gene's Red X Service Station in Wisconsin. Mr. Kiser was a U.S. Navy veteran of the Korean Conflict and WWII.

Surviving are his wife, Helen Kiser; son, Eugene Addison Kiser of Clarksburg; daughters, Joyce Sabel of Eleanor and Judy Taylor of Charleston; step-son, William Marty of Nitro; step-daughters, Patricia Westfall of Charleston and Linda Calley of Nitro; brothers, Leo Kiser, Sr. and Tom Kiser of Wisconsin; sister, Bernice Taylor of St. Albans; ten grandchildren, five step-grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral service will be 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 24, at Keller Funeral Home, Dunbar, with the Rev. Ronald Bates officiating. Burial, with military rites, will follow in Kiser Cemetery, Jackson County.

Friends may call at Keller Funeral Home, Dunbar, two hours prior to the service on Saturday.