Ripley, W.Va.

Larry E. Kay, 63, of Ripley passed away Sunday, March 21, 2010, at his home following a long illness.

He was born January 9, 1947, at Ripley a son of the late Everett and Ina Barnette Kay. He was a U.S Army Reserve Veteran, retired from Alcan Aluminum with 41 years of service, and was a Baptist by faith. He enjoyed farming, hunting, and fishing, but one of his great joys was spending time with his grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife Violet Sams Kay; children Cindy L. Hall (Tim), Stephanie D. Kay (Guy Redman), Eric E. Kay (Laura J. Crow), Jennifer Kay Summerville (Curtis Summerville) and Kenneth S. Kay (Amy L. Kay); grandchildren Chelsea, Cheyanne and Tucker Hall, Adrianna, Jordan, Zaevrey and Avery Kay, and Emma K. Redman; sisters Viola Lewis (Henry) and Violet Kerns (Arthur); and brother Gary Kay (Connie).

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by brother Kenneth Kay, sisters and brothers-in-law Lucille and Herman Hinzman and Luella and Jack Spears, and grandson Seth Hall.

Funeral Service will be 1 p.m. Thursday, March 25, at the Waybright Funeral Home, Ripley with Pastor Mark Leonard officiating. Burial will be in the Pine Hill Cemetery, Ripley. Friends may call from 5 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 24, at the funeral home.

Memorial donations may be made to the Sycamore Centennial Church or Community Building.
