

The Mountaineer

March 22, 1912

Obituary: Mrs. Edith (GILLILAN) LACEY

Mrs. Edith (GILLILAN) LACEY died at her home in Charleston at 9 o'clock last Saturday morning of typhoid fever. Mrs. LACEY has been sick for nearly three weeks and was apparently improving. Two days before her demise her condition changed and she sank rapidly. The members of her family were summoned and were at her bedside at the time of her death. The remains were shipped to Ripley, arriving Tuesday, and taken to the home of D. W. Greer. The funeral was held from the Epworth Church Wednesday at 2 p.m. Rev. A. BACKUS officiating. The remains were interred at the Pine Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. LACEY was formerly Miss Edith GILLILAN of this place and was about twenty-one years of age. September last (1911) she was united in marriage to Henry LACEY, with her mother, three sisters and two brothers survive. Henry LACEY, Mrs. Susan V. GILLILAN, Charles Eugene GILLILAN, Mrs. R. N. MATHES, Mrs. BEAVER and Mrs. HOLMES, of Charleston accompanied the remains of Mrs. LACEY here for burial. (Mountaineer, 22 March 1912)