Randall W. Morris

Randall W. "Randy" Morris, 60, of Ripley passed away Sunday, January 11, 2009, at Hubbard Hospice House following a long illness.

He was born September 18, 1948, at Parkersburg, a son of Phyllis Hinzman Morris of Ripley and the late William Morris. He was a machinist, having retired from Ravenswood Aluminum Company. He was a former member of the Army Reserve Unit in Ripley and attended the Ripley Baptist Temple.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his wife, Connie Armstead McMillion Morris; a son, Tim Morris of Thomasville, N.C.; a daughter, Julie Bain of Kernersville, N.C.; a stepdaughter, Andrea McMillion of Charleston; a sister, Toby Smith of Herndon, Va.; his grandchildren, Jonathan, Susan and Jacob Morris, and Andrew and Addison Bain. He is also survived by his old buddy, Winston.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Sandy Morris.

The family would like to thank Hubbard Hospice House for their kindness and help, along with his many friends who held him close in their thoughts and prayers.

The funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, January 14, 2009, at Ripley Baptist Temple with Pastor Rick Perrine and Pastor Lee Swor officiating. Burial will be at Pine Hill Cemetery, Ripley.

Friends may call from 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Parsons-Waybright Funeral Home, Ripley, and one hour prior to the service at the church.
