

September 28, 2009

Cread J. Snyder

Cread J. Snyder, 82, of Ripley passed away Friday, September 25, 2009, at Jackson General Hospital following a sudden illness.

He was born February 6, 1927, at Odaville, son of the late Delbert and Pluma Weekley Snyder. He was a retired construction worker with Black Rock contracting, a member of the Ripley Tabernacle Baptist Church and a Navy veteran of World War II.

Surviving are wife, Geneva Fields Snyder of Ripley; sons, Danney of Ripley and Terry of Charleston; daughters, Debra Click of Ripley and Patricia Morris of New Whiteland, Ind.; brothers, Jimmie and Eddie Snyder, both of Flint, Mich.; sister, Bobbie Jean Roush of Flint, Mich.; grandchildren, Erica, Derek, Olivia and Britney Morris, Joshua Click and Kyle and Kaitlin Snyder; and great-grandson, Brady McVay.

Funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday, September 29, at Waybright Funeral Home, Ripley, with Pastor Mark Leonard officiating. Interment will follow at Pine Hill Cemetery, Ripley, with military rites by American Legion Post 107, Ripley.

Friends may call from 5 to 8 p.m. Monday at Waybright Funeral Home, Ripley.