Ravenswood, W.Va. -

Evangeline Booth Hopkins of Ravenswood went home to be with the Lord on April 11, 2009, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Norma and Russell Voiers of Millwood.

She was born May 28, 1929, in Harmony, WV, a daughter to the late Roy E. and May (Romine) Booth. She was also preceded in death by her husband Jesse Clair Hopkins, brother Hobert Booth, and daughter-in-law Judy Mace Hopkins.

She was a loving mother and grandmother and will be greatly missed by all of her family and friends.

She was a homemaker and seamstress and had been formally employed by Kellwood Company of Spencer, Cedar Lakes Conference Center, Ravenswood Library, and the Eastern Star. She was a very talented seamstress and served many people in the Ravenswood and Ripley areas.

In addition to her daughter, Norma, other survivors include sons Jim Hopkins of Evans and Stanley and his wife Sandra Hopkins of Mount Alto; sisters Merle Tolley of Salem, OH, and Vivian Jones of Gandeeville; seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

A memorial service and celebration of her life will be held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, April 18, at the Aplin United Methodist Church with the Rev. Danny Cummings officiating. A private family interment will follow in the White Pine Cemetery.

Casto Funeral Home of Evans is in charge of arrangements.

Flowers will be accepted, or donations can be made to: Kanawha Hospice Care, 1143 Dunbar Avenue, Dunbar, WV 25064.

Online condolences may be sent to: castofuneralhome@citynet.net.
