

April 25, 2010

Curtis Leo McVey

Curtis Leo McVey, 64, of Campbells Creek went home to be with the Lord on Friday April 23, 2010, at his home.

Leo was born in Charleston on August 8, 1945, to the late George and Helen Trigg McVey. He was retired from United Dairy with 22 years of service and was a U.S. Air Force veteran of the Vietnam War. He was a member of Point Lick Gospel Tabernacle and the Teamsters Local 175.

He is survived by his loving wife of 44 years, Diana Moles McVey; sons, Curtis Leo (Kristi) McVey Jr. and Chuck (Traci) McVey, all of Charleston; grandchildren, Tabitha, Charlie, Haley and Shawn McVey; and many extended family members and special friends.

Funeral service will be held at noon Tuesday, April 27, 2010, at Stevens & Grass Funeral Home, Malden, with Pastor Larry Campbell officiating. Burial will follow at New Antioch Cemetery, Putnam County.

Friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, April 26, 2010, at the funeral home.

The online guest book for Mr. McVey may be accessed at www.stevensandgrass.com.