

January 16, 2009

Vickie Sue Moles

Vickie Sue Moles, born September 4, 1952, departed this life January 13, 2009, assuring everyone she came in contact with that she was ready to make her final departure to Heaven. As she gathered the entire family around the bedside during those final hours, she told each goodbye and encouraged all of us to meet her there. Her faith in the Lord, love for her family and friends, and strength throughout her illness will forever impact those who were around her. To know Vickie was to love her. She leaves a void in our hearts that will never be filled, but we are so excited about her final resting place she has now inherited.

She was employed at Dow Chemical with 34 years of service and was a member of Point Lick Gospel Tabernacle, Campbells Creek.

Vickie was preceded in death by her father, Charles King; and a son, Ryan Scott Francisco.

Left to cherish her memory are her loving husband, Harold; son, Casey Lee Moles of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; daughter, Jennifer (Chris) Bulger of Lake View, New York; mother, Marcella King of Dunbar; brother, Chuck (Alice) King of West Palm Beach, Florida; granddaughter and the love of her life, Kyleigh Bulger; special friend, Lynn Johnston of Charleston; many nieces, nephews and extended family; and a host of co-workers at Dow Chemical.

A celebration of Vickie's life will be 11 a.m. Friday, January 16, at Point Lick Gospel Tabernacle with the Rev. Larry Campbell officiating. The burial will follow the service in New Antioch Cemetery, Putnam County.

Her family and friends gathered for the visitation from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at Point Lick Gospel Tabernacle.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations in Vickie's memory to the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, 301 RHL Blvd., Suite 6, Charleston, WV 25309.

The online guestbook for Mrs. Moles may be accessed at www.stevensandgrass.com.

Stevens & Grass Funeral Home, Malden, is in charge of the arrangements.