

October 12, 2009

Agnes "Aggie" Raynes

Agnes "Aggie" Raynes, 85, of Nitro passed away Friday October 9, 2009, at Thomas Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

Aggie was a former employee of Union Carbide Institute Plant with over 35 years of service working in the Lab. She was a former member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Nitro, and attended the Temple Baptist Church in Titusville, Fla., for the 20 years she was a resident in Florida.

Aggie was preceded in death by parents, Harry and Katie Bowles Honaker; sister and brother-in-law, Jinnie and Jim Hartley; and brother-in-law, Cecil Crews.

Surviving are loving husband of 62 years, James L. "Jim" Raynes, at home; daughter, Bobbie Glock of South Charleston; grandson, Ryan Glock of Nitro; three great-grandchildren, Andrew, Hailey, and Abygail; sister, Jewell Crews of Nitro; brother, Arnold Honaker and wife Brenda of Titusville, Fla.; and several special nieces and nephews.

Service will be 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 13, 2009, at Cooke Funeral Home Chapel, 2002-20th Street, Nitro, with the Rev. Mark Smith officiating. Burial will follow in Wade Chapel Cemetery. Red House.

Friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, October 12, at Cooke Funeral Home Chapel, 2002-20th St. Nitro.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 1111 Lee Street East, Charleston, WV or to the American Diabetes Association, Dunbar, WV 25064.

Condolences may be sent to the family via our website www.cookefuneralhome.com.

Cooke Funeral Home, Nitro, is in charge of arrangements.