

Glenn Dale Jividen

(November 21, 1921 - September 8, 2006)

Glenn Dale “Zeke” Jividen of 84, of Nitro passed away Friday September 8, 2006 at home following long illness.

He was a former employee of Union Carbide’s Institute plant with over 40 years of service. His co-workers knew him by the nickname “Zeke.” He was also known as the “Voice of Carbide” for his duty as plant announcer.

Born November 21, 1921 he was the son of the late Cecil and Rachel Tucker Jividen. He was also preceded in death by his first wife Bertha Stover Jividen, sister; Gaynell Jividen, an infant brother, brothers; Glair and Gerald Jividen. Survivors include: Wife: Betty Riffle Jividen. Sons: Darrell of Cross Lanes. Glenn Joe and wife Linda of St. Albans. Daughter: Carolyn Miller and husband Charles of Barboursville. Step sons: Otis Riffle and wife Sandy of Bancroft. Clark Riffle and wife Missy of Buffalo. Grandchildren: Teresa and Nick Carney of Calhoun GA. Charles Dwayne and Dianne Miller of Baltimore OH. Paul and Connie Miller of Barboursville. Jennifer Jividen of St. Albans. Aaron Jividen of St. Albans. Step Grandchildren: Beth Ann Riffle of Nitro. Travis Riffle of Nitro. Andrew Riffle of Buffalo. Cody Wolfe of Buffalo. Frankie Wolfe of Buffalo. Gary Riffle of Bancroft. Cristie Riffle Kelly of Teays Valley. Great grandchildren; Ashley Miller of Fairfield VT. Avery Miller of Baltimore OH. Adrienne Miller of Baltimore OH. Tara and Athony Lawhon of Huntington. Bradley Midkiff of Barboursville. Luke Carney of Calhoun GA.

Services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Monday September 11, 2006 at Raynes Funeral Home, Buffalo with Pastor Roy Painter officiating. Burial will follow at Walker Chapel Cemetery, Robertsburg.

Friends may call from 5-8 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home.